

TerryAllen Farms Advanced Riding Program

TerryAllen Farms will be offering a one-week day session of an Advanced Riding program. The focus will be on improving the interest in horsemanship and riding for the advanced students. Students must have previous experience, students must be able to jump 2' on any of our school horses. A one-hour riding lesson will be given twice a day. This Program will introduce some of the other disciplines of the English riding. For example, some of the disciplines that will be reviewed will be jumpers, dressage, hunters and equitation. On one of the days, the students will be participating in an IEA-type setting at the Farm. They will be going to Frazier Farm or Wethersfield and transportation for the student and the horse will be included in the registration fee. The student will also need to bring to the show a bagged lunch or money to purchase lunch at the show. The student should bring a bagged lunch on the other four days of the Program and waters or some other refreshment for themselves.

The Program will run from 9:00 a.m. thru 3:00 p.m. daily. Come join us for a great week of fun with friends – both human and equine. You can register by filling out the attached application and returning it to Samantha Borkoski, TerryAllen Farms, 188 Allen Street, Terryville, CT 06786. If you have any questions, feel free to call – 860-585-9018.

Registration will be on a first-come, first-served basis. Only 8 spots available. One-half of the registration fee is required to hold the registration. Deposit are not refundable unless with a written verification of a physician of injury or illness. Any student breaking Farm rules, including the possession or use of alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs, or weapons will be dismissed from the Program immediately with no refund of any fees. A student who exhibits emotional, psychological, or behavioral conditions, which are disruptive to the Program or harmful to herself/himself, will be dismissed with no refund.

Clothing:

All riders are encouraged to wear riding pants and boots with a heel. Loose tops are not ideal riding gear. A riding helmet is required. Swimming may be offered if time is allowing; please bring a bathing suit and towel.

On Wednesday, the day of the horse show, the student should wear polo shirts with tan riding britches, boots are required to be polished. The students should have gloves, belts and helmets and if needed, a black crop and spurs.

Instructor:

The instructor for the Advanced Riding Program at TerryAllen Farms is Samantha Borkoski. Samantha has received her Associates Degree in Stable Management/Equine Studies at Southern Virginia College in Buena Vista, Virginia. Samantha was a member of the Intercollegiate Riding Team for the College. She received the High Point Equitation Rider Award in 1998. Samantha has been showing her horses in local Connecticut and out of state shows. She has been the Coach of the TerryAllen Farms IEA Equestrian Team for the past 18 years.

Demonstrations: (Advanced)

Safety: Safety guidelines will be reviewed on handling horses.

Dressage will be about improving the student's flat work by teaching lateral work to strengthen their horse and review a basic dressage test. They will also learn the differences in dressage showing and how it is shown.

IEA Day will be going over what is expected at an IEA Show. A mock horse show is planned for this day.

Hunter will discuss the form and technique judges are looking for in this type of showing.

Jumpers will review the rules and regulations of jumper classes. The students will be practicing jumper courses and learning how to reduce their time.

Equitation will focus on improving form and technique of the rider. The students will be focusing on their position. We will be practicing courses that involve tight turns and corners.

Other topics will be discussed, such as shoeing, feeding, and stable management.
